...FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., March 13.—The Capitol presents a deserted appearance these days, though in accordance with the constitutional provision, the House is constructively in session and will be until Thursday. The great body of members have gone to their homes to account to their constituency "for things done which they ought not have done, and for things left undone which they ought to have done," and yet with (the great majority) a consciousness of duty faithfully performed. The great proportion of legislation enacted has been of a nature beneficial to the State's great interest. Among the men who have eminently distinguished themselves is Col. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, who has had the honor of creating a bureau of insurance, something the State has needed many years, both for the protection of the insured and the legitimate companies and associations. It is particularly noteworthy by virtue of the fact that by its formation it will not be a burden on the State, but will be maintained by the associations to which it gives protection. His fight for the local taxation of rolling stock of railroad companies has challenged the admiration of the General Assembly. After the passing by indefinitely by the committee, he forced an adverse report on the House, had the bill engrossed by a vote of 57 to 28 and after a remarkable fight for final action by the House, secured a vote in favor of the measure by the vote of 40 to 26, but on account of the lack of a constitutional majority, the bill failed of passage by that body. He also had passed in the House the measure for the change of the constitution, allowing in street improvement the assessing of abutting property owners. Quite a sensation was sprung on the legislature on Saturday night by the statement of a Senator that certain bills had been tampered with. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter, but from present developments it looks as though it were simply a tempest in a teapot, and that a mare's nest has been found without eggs. Senator Lewis H. Machen has been one of the most popular and hardest worked members of the Senate. Taken all in all this legislature will go down in history as the hardest worked body in the history of the State.

Warrants for Serenaders.

Because he was besieged in his home all night, and because of damage to his property by strenuous serenaders upon the occasion of the wedding of his son, H. J. Mossbury, of Perrypolis, Pa., has sworn out warrants for the arrest of many of the town's prominent young men. Mr. Mossbury says that the serenaders made him a target for sticks and stones, riddled his house with shot and caused other damage with dynamite. In addition to the criminal prosecution, Mr. Mossbury announces he will bring civil suits against the offenders.

The serenaders, fifty in number, appeared at the Mossbury home last Thursday night, and when Mossbury with his son and daughter-in-law appeared on the porch the crowd threw a volley of stones, one of these hitting the elder man on the leg, causing a painful wound. Incensed, he drew a revolver and firing into the air, ordered the crowd to leave.

His act only served to enrage them, and, after sending a part of their number after shotguns, members of the mob began a fusilade which did not diminish until nearly four hours later. Over 350 shots were fired during this time, and when the crowd ceased firing at 2 o'clock Friday morning, the shade trees in the front yard were shot to pieces, the roof of the porch and parts of the house were riddled with shot, and the fences in the immediate vicinity were laid flat on the ground.

Later the besieging force secured five sticks of dynamite and exploded all of them simultaneously. Nearly every window in the house was shattered and its occupants were badly frightened.

When the crowd dispersed, nearly two bushels of empty shotgun shells were picked up in the front yard.

Bishop Defiant.

An exciting scene occurred yesterday at the doors of the Cathedral at Marseilles. The local authorities attempted to take an inventory under the church and state separation law, whereupon the bishop, wearing his miter, and surrounded by the congregation chanting, ordered the authorities not to enter the cathedral and read a declaration denouncing the law as renewing the evils which brought on the revolution and reign of terror. The bishop added:

"Here, before the altar, I announce that I am prepared to suffer imprisonment, exile or death in defending the rights of the church."

The authorities withdrew in order to avoid trouble. The cathedral will be closed day and night and guards, who will keep regular watches, have been organized to resist the government inspectors.

The population of the town of Coucouron determined to resist the taking of the inventory of the church under the separation law. The doors are heavily barricaded and strong gratings have been fastened across the windows. A hundred men armed with rifles and provisioned for a long siege are installed inside the edifice.

A dispatch from Rome says that the vatican has been following the French cabinet crisis with the keenest interest but its solution is considered to complete the disaster to the Catholic Church in France. A prominent prelate exclaimed yesterday: "We have fallen from the frying pan into the fire." The Vatican authorities received a dispatch yesterday giving the names of the members of the new cabinet, with the additional statement that its composition will not be officially announced until today, because yesterday being the thirteenth day of the month, is considered to be unlucky. The Pontiff smiled sadly when this information was conveyed to him, saying:

"Evidently being a freethinker does not exclude superstition. Bad days are preparing for the dear, dear Catholics in France."

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life.

Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 14, 1906.

GENERAL WOOD'S description of the sanguinary scenes in connection with the recent slaughter of between six and nine hundred natives of the Philippine Islands by United States soldiers shows that the Americans will have a difficult task to perform in the subjugation of this determined people. The Filipinos literally fought to the death, refusing quarter, fighting members of the ambulance corps who attempted to minister to their needs and resisting the surgeons when placed upon operating tables. The Americans, too, manifested a determination in ascending to the crater, where the natives were entrenched, under a fusilade of bullets, a shower of lava and other missiles, knowing that at the summit the Filipinos would meet them with bolos. The natives may be charged with foolhardiness, but that they were as brave as any men who ever bore arms must be allowed. The Americans offer in extenuation for their action the allegation that the Filipinos were common outlaws, preying upon all who passed in the vicinity of their stronghold. This may or may not be a fact. The natives probably argued as logically as the robber who was brought before Alexander the Great, regarding the Americans as wholesale plunderers and believing they had a perfect right to follow their vocation on a small scale.

JUDGE ALTON B. PARKER, of New York, delivered an address before the Mississippi legislature at Jackson yesterday, in which he charged the republican party with such relations with monopolies and the beneficiaries of special privileges that it "has at its command every capacious and well-filled reservoir of political corruption, with supply pipes draining from them into every camp where its favorites are found." Speaking of the men under fire in the New York insurance investigation Judge Parker declared that "it would not be possible to draw a grand jury in New York city that would not indict them for at least two and perhaps three of the most serious crimes known to law," or for them to escape conviction. The judge said those corporations were corrupt to the core. Judge Parker justly arraigned the present tariff system, and said that every serious evil with which society is now either afflicted or threatened has grown out of the abuse of the taxing power of the government. The judge evidently knows whereof he speaks.

EVIDENCE in connection with the infamous traffic in white girls conducted, it is alleged, in New York by a negro named Spriggs has caused considerable exasperation in that city. It is charged that some policemen and police officials are Spriggs's accomplices. Fifty girls, employed in factories and stores of the Tenderloin and the lower West Side of New York, have disappeared within the short space of three months, and according to the information given to the police by their parents and friends, most of them are now said to be held in captivity and suffering tortures at the hands of the negro dealers in white slaves. Mary Smith, the alleged proprietress of a negro dive raided Monday night by the men of the district attorney's office over the heads of the police, was held in $1,600 bail for examination.

THE REPORT of the House subcommittee of the naval affairs committee, holds the cadet officers to blame for hazing at the Naval Academy and also censures Rear Admiral Browning for failing to make rules to effectually prevent hazing, also for absolving cadets from their promise to discountenance hazing when he left the academy. The Gazette has held from the beginning that the officers at the naval academy were responsible more than any others for the hazing carried on there. The officers had absolute power to stop it, but, instead of doing this, they rather encouraged hazing.

CONGRESS by its action in pruning the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill has caused no little consternation among those who represent this country abroad. The object Congress is said to have in view is to consolidate some of the consulates. For many years observant people have seen but little utility in the large number of representatives sent from this country to foreign nations. In by-gone years, before the advent of the steamship or ocean cable, there was some excuse for placing agents of the government in different foreign cities. There is but little at the present day.

THE NEW chairman of the democratic congressional committee, Hon. James M. Griggs, of Georgia, has been selected by his political associates because of their faith in his ability and energy as a party organizer. This is his fifth term of faithful and valuable service in the House. In his election for the present Congress seven votes were cast for his opponent.

THE frequent changes of the French ministries afford a surface indication that there is no lack of statesmen in the republic. But a closer observation will show that in the many changes of French Cabinets there are no great changes in their personnel Frequently the change is only in the head of the ministry.

A CURIOUS thing noticed at once by visitors to Moscow is the absence of whips among the cab drivers. There is a law prohibiting their use. There is not a single whip in use in Moscow. The excellent condition of the horses attests the benefit of this humane law.

EMPEROR WILLIAM has ordered the German forces in China to return home, but President Roosevelt keeps right on with his plans for invading China with an army of United States troops.

From Washington.

Washington, March 14.

At a conference in his brother Henry's house in New York today Secretary of War Taft will decide definitely whether he will accept the seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States which has been offered him by the President. His other brother, Chas. P. Taft, of Cincinnati, will be present at the meeting as well as some of the Secretary's political and business friends. The question will be considered from a political as well as a family and personal standpoint. If Mr. Taft does decide to don the ermine the interesting prediction is made that Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, will be appointed to succeed him as Secretary of War. His unpleasant relations with his present colleague, Lafollette, are well known. It is understood that in case Secretary Taft retires, the supervision of Panama canal affairs will be transferred to the State Department and that First Assistant Secretary Bacon will be placed in direct charge. Another name that is being considered as a possible successor to Secretary Taft should he decide to go on the bench is that of Col John T. McCook, the New York lawyer.

Senator Depew, who has been variously reported at different sanitariums, is in reality at his home in New York city and is a sick man. Senator Platt, who made this statement, this morning, says that Senator Depew is receiving no callers whatever. It is his understanding that Mr. Depew will not return to Washington this session. Senator Platt denies the rumor that Senator Depew and his wife have separated.

The claims of the Brooklyn navy yard were eloquently set forth at the White House this morning by a delegation of New York and Brooklyn Congressmen who called to discuss the matter of warship construction with the President. The President promised to do what he could for the yard and seized the opportunity for advancing his greater navy propaganda. "If Congress will authorize the construction of three battleships instead of one," he told the Congressmen, "Brooklyn navy yard will stand a much better chance of building one than if the appropriation bill provides for only two" The representatives promised to work and work hard for three.

An interesting and significant fact has developed in the railroad rate regulation situation in the Senate. Senator Aldrich representing that element in the Senate which desires the insertion of amendments in the Hepburn bill to ensure a full review by the courts of rate decisions made by the Interstate Commerce Commission, has notified the other side that he is ready for a vote. This, of course, means that he and his colleagues are confident that they have votes enough to write into the Hepburn bill the amendments they want. Senator Aldrich's challenge has not yet been accepted and from the number of speeches that have been scheduled it begins to look as though the opponents of the court review proposition, realizing the strength of the other side, are sparring for time.

"What we want in the consular service," said Secretary Root this morning in addressing the National Reform Convention, "is men who have not burned out the fire of life; men who have not gone beyond the ambition of life; men who will do work and accomplish their success in the consular service. What we need is more than some 1,000 men scattered in all the countries of the world. We have come to the time for reform. A service that did well enough when there was little to do is not good enough today. Let's apply to it the business capacity that the American people have applied to everything else that they do." The convention adopted a resolution before the Secretary appeared, approving of the Lodge bill, but regretting that certain features, which they regarded as of great importance, had been stricken out of the original bill.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate today: To be Brigadier General—Lieutenant Colonel Charles F. Powell. (Gen. Powell is to be retired immediately, to be succeeded as Brigadier General by Colonel John W. Bubb.)

The Navy Department is preparing a list of guests to be invited to the John Paul Jones ceremonies at Annapolis, April 24. The guests will include the Senators and Representatives in Congress, officers and delegations of the various national patriotic societies, and the members of the French Embassy here. Government officials, high officers of the army and navy and many prominent persons will also be invited. The diplomatic corps as a body will not be invited, no foreign representatives except the Frenchmen being asked.

Secretary Bonaparte will present to the President tomorrow morning Mrs. H. Jacobs Barton and a party of prominent Baltimore society women, acting as a committee to urge upon the President the necessity of the interference of the federal government for the preservation of Niagara Falls. The women represent several patriotic organizations. They will also urge co-operation between the United States and Great Britain to prevent the destruction of the cataract by diversion of water for power purposes. It is not expected that another delegation of Alexandria women will call on the President in the near future.

Representative Hardwick, of Georgia, intends to offer a resolution in the House to empower the committee on election of the President, Vice President and members of Congress, to summon witnesses and administer oaths, for the purpose of ascertaining what amounts of money we contributed to the National campaigns of 1892, 1896, 1900 and 1904 and who made the contributions. A resolution for such an inquiry offered by Representative Cochran dem. N. Y., is pending before the committee. Mr. Hardwick wants the chairman of the several national committees summoned before the committee to testify as to "where they got it."

A swinging iron derrick attached to the north wall of the Raleigh Hotel and used in the erection of an addition to the building accidentally struck a scaffold on which two men were working this morning, hurling them to a floor fifty feet below. One of the men, named Frank Hammond, the engineer, was instantly killed, and the other seriously injured. A third workman, a colored man, struck by the falling scaffold, was also badly hurt.

The application made yesterday to Justice Holmes of the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of error from the Supreme Court of Massachusetts to the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Charles L. Tucker, now under sentence of death for the murder of Mabel Page at Weston, Mass., on March 31, 1904, has been taken under advisement by the justice and his decision will be announced tomorrow.

Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her maid, left Washington this morning for New York, where she will attend tomorrow the special performance of "Haensel und Gretel," for the benefit of the Legal Aid Society.

About forty representatives of commercial organizations in the larger cities of the country appeared before the House foreign affairs committee this morning in advocacy of the pending Foster Chinese exclusion bill.

About 6 o'clock this morning the dead body of Mrs. Harriet Goodrich, 70 years of age, was found in the areaway back of her house, 1385 North Carolina avenue, by her daughter-in-law. It is supposed that some time during the night Mrs. Goodrich fell from the second story window while walking in her sleep.

President Roosevelt this morning promised a number of Congressmen to appoint James E. West to the judgeship of the new Juvenile Court of the District of Columbia. Mr. West is at present a member of the Board of Pension Appeals. He was a waif himself and all his life has taken a deep interest in the welfare of the children of the poor.

After a visit to the White House yesterday Mr. Gardiner, of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee on industrial arts and expositions, expressed the opinion that the committee would approve of an appropriation for the Jamestown Exposition, notwithstanding his opposition.

The lava from the volcano is flowing into the ocean in a stream three-quarters of a mile wide and 20 feet deep, at the rate of 20 feet an hour.

Legislative Notes.

Few legislators were aboat the Capitol in Richmond yesterday. There were less than a dozen in both chambers, and those that wandered into the old haunts spent little time there.

Governor Swanson is kept busy reading the bills over and affixing his signature to them. He considers each matter carefully. He has not yet vetoed a solitary measure. He has signed the Puller bill, which prevents the redistricting of cities for political purposes. This is the bill which raised such a disturbance among the politicians in the city of Norfolk.

The Senate and House met at noon today, but the session was purely formal, not occupying more than a few moments. The report of the "mysterious amendment" committee may be submitted today.

The special legislative committee appointed in the closing hours of the General Assembly to investigate the insertion of an alleged spurious amendment in the engrossed copy of the Portsmouth water bond bill appears to be making slow progress. A session was held yesterday morning which amounted to practically nothing, neither of the two witnesses summoned making his appearance. The telegram to Senator Thomas failed to reach the addressee, while Mr Bland wired back that all he knew of the matter was what he had learned from Senator Neimeyer, who is a member of the committee Another meeting of the committee was held in the afternoon. It is probable that a report may be submitted to the legislature today. The report will probably declare that no signs of fraud have been detected by the committee.

The legislative committee appointed to investigate the Virginia Polytechnic Institute is to begin its work about the middle of June.

Senator Rayner this afternoon concluded one of the most powerful speeches yet delivered on the floor of the Senate in favor of governmental rate regulation for interstate traffic. He expressed his almost complete satisfaction with the Hepburn bill as it passed the House, defining his exact attitude in these words: "I am in favor of an amendment to the bill vesting in the court the right to try the question of unjust compensation, with restraining orders abolished, and with the further right, if possible, to let the court fix the rate if it reverses the order of the commission. With these changes I am in favor of the bill as passed by the House, and if we can not get these changes I prefer to take the bill as it is rather than mutilate it or destroy its efficiency." The Senator took emphatic issue with Mr. Foraker, upon his contention that Congress had not the right to make rates through a Commission. But, "I must say," he continued, I have never known a hopeless cause to be managed with such consummate and matchless skill.

City Council.

A meeting of the City Council last night lasted about an hour. The Common Council transacted the business which came up in less than that time, but the Aldermen were not so quick in disposing of the matters which were introduced in that board.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the members of the board were present. The action of the lower board on all the papers sent in last night was concurred in.

An ordinance providing for the paving with vitrified brick of Lee street from King to Prince, laid over at the last meeting, was read the third time and passed.

A recommendation from the committee on streets that $1,600 be appropriated for the purchase of a stone crusher, laid over at the last meeting, was read.

Mr. Ballenger made inquiry as to the utility of such a machine, and Mr. Marbury explained its usefulness in street work. Among other things he said gravel and broken stone have advanced in price, and the city had stone that could be broken and used in street improvements. He stated that by so doing the city could save about one-half the amount that would be required to purchase material.

Mr. Ballenger asked what stone was available.

Mr. Marbury replied that the city had many cobble and other stones that could be broken and used.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney said City Engineer Dunn had appeared before the finance committee and demonstrated that the city could save the cost of a crusher in a short time. Considerable street work was needed and by procuring a crusher and using stone belonging to the city much money could be saved.

The report of the committee was adopted.

An ordinance to provide against obstructions over sidewalks and to prevent the obstruction of streets, received from the Common Council at the last meeting, was then read.

Mr Ballenger opposed the action of the lower board in erasing part of section 3 which forebade the display of chickens and fish on sidewalks with the consent of adjoining property owners.

Mr. Marbury did not see how Council could make discriminations by allowing one merchant to display his goods and forbidding another.

Mr. Ballenger said fish and poultry were obnoxious to some persons occupying adjoining property, and mentioned certain places where such displays caused complaint.

Mr. Marbury said he had no objections to urge against reinserting the words the Common Council had erased, but he desired to know if Council had the power to make such discriminations.

President Sweeney was inclined to believe all had equal rights in the display of their goods.

Mr. Ballenger said Corporation Attorney Fisher had drawn up the ordinance after that formulated by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. If such an ordinance was suitable for Washington, he saw no reason why it could not be enacted in Alexandria.

Mr. Simpson saw no constitutional difficulty in adopting the ordinance. Council undoubtedly had the right to provide laws governing the streets of the city. The object of the proposed law was to prevent obstructions on thoroughfares, and should anything savoring of a nuisance be placed on the streets, the parties so offending could be compelled to remove the same. Poultry and fish, ordinarily, were no more repugnant than other things often seen on pavements, e. g., cabbage in an advanced stage of decomposition. Should either of such products become a nuisance the owner could be required to remove the same from the streets. He favored the ordinance in the shape in which it had come from the lower board. He thought the insertion of the words insisted upon by Mr. Ballenger would be unjust to some.

Mr. Burke thought it would be better if all obstructions were removed from King street.

Mr. Hill, who had favored certain amendments to the ordinance at the last meeting, said he would vote to pass it in its present shape, as he had consulted several King street merchants and they had told him they had no objection to it.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney said he had at first supposed that the proposed law only applied to King street, but when it had been read he saw it embraced all thoroughfares. He, therefore, was opposed to it.

After further discussion the ordinance was recommitted to the committees on general laws and streets.

An adverse report of the committee on light on a resolution appropriating $500 for the employment of an electrical engineer to report a plan by which the city could erect a new electric light plant was received from the Common Council.

Mr. Ballenger (who had introduced the resolution at a previous meeting) moved a concurrence with the Common Council, remarking at the time that the people could now see who want and who do not want electricity in Alexandria.

Mr. Hill said the committee saw no reason to spend $500 to get a man to tell Council what the members knew already. In time the committee would act in the matter.

Mr. Ballenger said he knew the members of the committee were averse to the resolution.

President Sweeney (Vice President Curtin in the chair) made a speech in defense of the resolution, during which he recapitulated the Barstow proposition recently rejected by the Board of Alderman, said he voted against that ordinance and was prepared to repeat the act. He said he believed the best interests of the city were subserved when the Aldermen refused to concur with the Common Council in adopting the Barstow proposition, and was opposed to adopting the report of the committee on Mr. Ballenger's resolution.

Mr. Burke spoke in defense of the Barstow proposition, explaining the provisions of the same. He said he was opposed to Mr. Ballenger's resolution.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney thought the matter had been advertised enough. Bids had been less favorable to the city every time proposals had been invited.

Mr. Hill said the city was not in a position to build a plant, but probably President Sweeney could devise ways and means by which Alexandria could be furnished with electricity and report at the next meeting of Council. He had energetically opposed the plans of others, doubtless he could bring in a feasible proposition.

President Sweeney said the resolution embraced all he had to suggest. The city could get practical ideas for the $500 provided for in the resolution. The speaker could not bring in a plant.

Mr. Hill said the city wanted a plant and all that there is in connection with it could be ascertained without spending five cents. He moved that the President be directed to furnish Council with plans for an electric plant at the next meeting. The President had always opposed the propositions of others, but never submitted anything himself. Now would be his opportunity.

The President ruled the motion out of order, but Mr. Hill insisted on it, contending that he had a right to make the motion.

President Sweeney said he would not attempt to do what M. Hill said he could do for nothing.

Mr. Hill—"If I bring in a proposition you will vote against it; that is the reason I want you to introduce it."

After the discussion had continued for some time, it was suggested that a committee of five—two from the Aldermen and three from the Common Council—be appointed to ascertain some practical plan by which electricity can be introduced in Alexandria. A resolution providing for the same was drawn up by the clerk and was adopted, and Messrs. Hill and Ballenger appointed on the part of the Board of Alderman.

Mr. Hill had insisted that President Sweeney be added to the committee, but the latter refused to act.

The board subsequently adjourned.

[While the above may in cold type appear to the reader serious, it can be stated that the discussion was conducted in a pleasant vein throughout.]

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board was called to order at 7:50 with 12 seats occupied. Two other members came in later.

The Mayor sent to Council the order of the Judge of the Corporation Court and the report of the jail inspectors requiring certain changes at the jail. The paper was referred.

The finance and light committees reported adversely upon paying $500 for an electric expert to examine the works, and the report was adopted.

On application of the Mutual Ice Company asking that an arc light be placed at Union and Cameron streets to afford light to the passengers on the steamers that are to land at the new wharves there, and a similar application for the Liberty Baptist Church asking for an arc light at Montgomery and Alfred streets, were referred to the committee on light.

A communication from Superintendent Hantzmon suggesting certain improvements at the gas works costing $2,500 were read. The subject was referred to the light committee.

An order to appropriate $125 to paint and repair the Reliance engine house was unanimously adopted after statements by Messrs Marshall and Uhler that the repairs were urgently needed.

A communication was read from the Auditor setting forth that the appropriations for cleaning streets, for the fire department, sewers, streets and chain gang were exhausted.

Mr. Bryan explained that in all these cases nearly the whole appropriations had already been expended and it was necessary that additional appropriations be made. The communication was referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Leadbeater inquired whether anything was being done to renew the electric light plant or was it intended to allow the whole plant to fall into ruins and end the lights.

Mr. Spinks said that new lamps, and up-to-date improvements were needed and the light committee ought to ask for an appropriation for them.

Mr. Bryan gave notice that he would reintroduce at the next meeting the ordinance asking for bids to do this electric lighting of the city.

Mr. Uhler in reply to Mr. Spinks said that six up-to-date lamps had just been purchased and he said there was no difference between the old lamps and the new ones.

Mr. Strauss urged that it was useless to ask for new bids unless all the members of both Boards were prepared to vote for the ordinance; he hoped they would do so at the next meeting.

Mr. Spinks commented on what he said was the cost of a needless $12,000 sewer on the west end of the town and the request for a new fire engine. He said light was more needed than sewers or fire engines on which it was proposed to spend money.

Mr. Uhler said that it would be useless to have a lamp unless you put oil in it, and it was no use to put up fine electric lamps when there was no current sufficient. The trouble was at the works, not in the lamps.

Here the discussion ended.

The Aldermen returned the ordinance relative to obstructions on the sidewalks, passed by the lower board at the last meeting, having referred the same, and asked concurrence in the reference.

Mr. Brill moved to lay the subject on the table, which was agreed to by a rising vote.

C. O. Pulman asked that he be allowed to make improvements to a frame building in an alley between Columbus, Prince, Alfred and Duke streets and the leave was granted.

After a recess, waiting for action of the Aldermen,

A resolution was sent in from the upper board appointing a committee of two Aldermen and three Councilmen to formulate plans for the erection of an electric light plant.

On motion of Mr. Bryan the resolution was laid on the table, Mr. Spinks alone voting in the negative, Council concurred in the Aldermen permit in reference to the roof on J. & H. Aitchesons' machine works and adjourned.

The Winston-Salem Murder.

The preliminary hearing of J. E. Witbeck, formerly of Alexandria, who was arrested at Petersburg Friday last and taken to Winston-Salem, N. C., Saturday, to answer the charge of being implicated in the murder of Henry Kobre, a Russian Jew, January 21, was begun before Mayor Eaton at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, and at 10:20 o'clock last night a recess was taken until 10 o'clock today, when the hearing will be resumed.

Joe Tise testified to seeing two men hurrying from the vicinity of the murder just after 11 o'clock the night of the murder. The witness identified Witbeck as one of the men he saw that night.

Sallie Stewart, the young woman, who up to this time, has refused to make a statement under oath, went on the stand last night and told a story that was not shaken during a rigid cross-examination. She said she was told by Witbeck that he planned the crime, and that Sam Kobre, half brother of Henry Kobre, admitted to her a day or two afterwards that he and William Plain killed and robbed Henry Kobre in his room; that a man who gave his name as "Finger" stood guard at one of the saloon doors downstairs during the perpetration of the crime. She said that the money taken from Henry Kobre was divided between the three men and J. E. Witbeck.

City Property in the Northeast.

To furnish drawings showing the location of all buildings on such wharf and their dimensions. Upon the completion of said surveys and drawings, the City Engineer is directed to furnish copies of the same to the chairman of the Committe on Public Property. And it is further ordered, That the collector of taxes and rents ascertain the owners of such tenements or houses as may be on the Corporation Fish Wharf, and what rent has been charged them by persons who have rented them such space; and if any person or persons or firms use said wharf and pay wharfage for the same and in what sums. The Tax Collector is requested to make an immediate report to the Committee on Public Property.

The order will be introduced at the next meeting of Council.

Mayor Fred J. Paff, of Alexandria, was in Richmond Tuesday, and spent some time with Senator Machen in the Senate chamber. Mr. Paff is here on private business, saying that among other things he came for was to escort Senator Machen home.—[Richmond News-Leader. [The Mayor reached Alexandria today alone, but Senator Machen need not fear returning to his constituents; they all know it is not his fault that his street improvement amendment to the constitution did not get through the Senate.]

Mr. J. T. Boyd, who has been sick at his home on Queen street, is able to be out again.

Mr. Phil. Leterman, who has been attending the bedside of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry Strauss, in this city, has returned to his home in Charlottesville.

In the Circuit Court of Alexandria county recently, it will be remembered, Mr. Wells, of this city, was given damages in the sum of $5,000 for injuries sustained in the collision at Hooff's run bridge last March. He was represented by Mr. L. H. Machen. By the decision Mr. Wells will receive the sum awarded him by the lower court.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Suicide of Playwright.

Louis De Lange, a well-known playwright and former actor, was found dead in his room on the third floor of Mack's Hotel, 145 west Forty-second street, New York, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, with his throat cut from the left ear to his windpipe. The man had been dead several hours. He was dressed in his underclothing, and the door was locked from the inside, the key remaining in the lock. His waistcoat was missing, with a gold watch, and his money was also gone. The police are looking for a young man who made two visits to De Lange's room with De Lange between 3:30 and 4:30 a. m., and who took a small bundle from the room after his first visit. They are also looking for a nighthawk cabman who brought the two men to the hotel at 4:30 and got 50 cents from De Lange and then went away. The police think that it was a case of suicide, following intoxication. Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon, who examined the body, also thinks it a suicide case, because he says the man had strength enough after his throat was cut to walk some distance, and could easily have warned the hotel employees. De Lange's brother, who roomed directly over him in the hotel, thinks it was suicide, but also thinks he was robbed by his mysterious visitor. The man's throat was cut with his own razor.

Suicide Behind the Scenes.

Singing together as sweethearts in the same chorus at the Columbia Theatre in Washington, William Thomas and Idra Gordon parted last night forever in a tragedy behind the scenes. Thomas committed suicide because he believed he had been jilted. In his sweetheart's presence he drank carbolic acid. She knocked the glass from his hand, but not in time. It was 8:45 when young Thomas quaffed the fatal draught. The entertainment was at its height. Miss Gordon did not miss her part. With a breaking heart she sang while her adorer was dying in an ambulance on the way to the Emergency Hospital. Physicians at the hospital found that life was extinct. After the show Miss Gordon went to the hospital and looked upon the corps. She wept. "I did not know he thought so much of me," she said. "I did not mean to break his heart. He misjudged me." Thomas, was twenty-two years old and lived at Saginaw, Mich. Miss Gordon, who is 16 years old, is said to live in New York. She is a handsome blonde, and has been with the company several seasons. The young couple met on the stage when young Thomas joined the troup on the road. An attachment sprang up, and they sang together in "Wonderland."

Suicide Identified.

North Conway, N. H., March 14.—It has been ascertained that the man who killed himself by taking morphine at Old Town, Maine, on the night of March 6, was the Rev. St. Ethelbert Yates, who married three wives without divorcing the first two and was deposed from the Episcopal ministry a year and a half ago by the Right Rev. Wm. Woodruff Niles, bishop of the diocese, on the charge of having induced Miss Mina Burroughs, of this town, to elope with him at the same time having a wife, Mrs. Mabel A. Yates, at Hammonton, N. J. About four months ago the one time minister married a young woman of Brookton, Me. He disagreed with this last wife, and this, with his other troubles is thought to have induced him to take his life. Yates attained widespread notoriety here two years ago, while he was rector of Christ Episcopal Church. One day he and Miss Mina Burroughs, at whose father's house the minister was boarding, ran away to Halifax, N. S., and had the marriage ceremony read over to them. Then the couple went to England where Yates applied to a Roman Catholic bishop for a mission, but was refused. The couple lived in England for a while, and then the wife returned to her people. About the same time the first wife in New Jersey obtained a divorce. Yates followed his second wife back to this country and preached in a Congregational Church in Aroostook for a while. Then he taught school for a few weeks. The third matrimonial venture was started during his career as a school teacher. He met a young woman of a respectable family, and married her, but she soon discovered that he had two other wives. This, it is rumored, is the trouble that the ex-minister had with his wife which ended in his suicide. Yates was about 40 years old.

New French Cabinet.

Paris, March 14.—The first cabinet meeting of the Sarrien ministry was held this morning. The terms of the government's declaration were discussed, and it was decided that they should be read to parliament this afternoon. After concluding their deliberations, the ministers went to the Elysee Palace, where they submitted their declaration to President Fallieres for his approval. After the cabinet's declarations had been presented to President Fallieres, they were read to Parliament by Premier Sarrien, in the Chamber of Deputies. The announced policy of the government in connection with internal affairs bears principally upon the subject of the separation law which caused the downfall of the Rouvier ministry. The government announced that the law would be strictly applied resorting to all measures necessary to do this. In foreign affairs, the government announced its intention to continue the policy of the former ministry, especially in connection with Moroccan affairs. France will also remain faithful to the Russian alliance under the new government.

Interpellations regarding the general policy of the government occasioned a number of stormy incidents in the chamber, particularly over church inventories. Premier Sarrien informed the deputies that a serious event occurred in Brittany yesterday when peasants attacked a detachment of soldiers with pitchforks and stones, and wounded a captain, a lieutenant, and ten men. After replies by Premier Sarrien, and M. Durand and Barthou other members of the cabinet, Premier Sarrien asked that the new ministry should be given a confidence. On the vote of confidence, demanded by Premier Sarrien, the chamber recorded itself in accord with the new government by the vote of 305 to 197.

Kaiser and Mohammedanism

Berlin, March 14.—In the Reichstag today Herr Beibel, the socalist, in the course of debate said: "The Kaiser aspires to be regarded as the patron of the Moslem religion and the guardians of Mohammedans throughout the world. The Emperor's journeys to Constantinople, Jerusalem, and Morocco were intended to produce this impression among the Moslems. All Mohammedans believe the Kaiser bears the banner of Islam." Herr Breberger, a clerical deputy, confirming Herr Beibel's assertion, declared that Mohammedanism is the official state religion in German East Africa, where German officials openly taught the Moslem natives that the Emperor of Germany was the supreme chief of Islam.

The Castellane Divorce Case.

Paris, March 14.—In accordance with the proceedings instituted yesterday by Countess Anna de Castellane to change her suit against her husband, Count Boni, from an action for legal separation to a divorce, both Boni and the Countess have been summoned to appear before Judge Petite next Saturday. At that time, in the strictest privacy of his study, the judge will make the formal effort to reconcile the differences of the parties. There is no hope, however, that success will attend the judge's efforts. French procedure requires that this step shall be taken. Anna's suit for separation was set for hearing today, but her change of plea yesterday annuls all the former proceedings

Rebel Leaders Beheaded.

Hong Kong, March 14.—The Chinese authorities have extradited and beheaded Kwangsi, the rebel leader, and three other men who were implicated in the attack made on the home of Dr. Andrew Beattie, the American missionary at Fati. Cable advices from China on February 8, told of an attack made on the missionary station headed by Dr. Beattie. The missionaries were bound by the robbers and their clothes, watches, and silver, valued at $1,000, were stolen.

Fight with Insurgents.

Constantinople, March 14.—The situation in the Yemen province of Arabia is reported as being very grave. Another battle has occurred between the Turkish troops and insurgents, and it is rumored that Generals Souleiman and Riza Pasha have been killed. Troops are now pursuing the insurgents. The Turkish commander-in-chief has demanded that heavy reinforcements be sent to him.

Socialists Defiant.

Warsaw, March 14.—The socialists have created quite a stir by the issuance of the following: "We have no faith in the government of the Douma. The revolutionists must fight until their aims have been reached. A tireless fight will be renewed in the spring and the struggle must be ended and won before the glorious first of May."

Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis Ind., March 14.—There is to be no difficulty between President John Mitchell and Vice President Lewis to endanger the successful outcome of the fight of the mine workers of America who are now waging war with the mine operators. Friends of the union feared that in the heat of the present crisis former troubles between the two leading officials of the organization might break out. It can today be authoritatively stated that peace has been declared and that under no circumstances will the personal matters between the two officials figure in the coming convention. The first meeting of the miners' national executive in connection with the reconvened convention opened this morning at national headquarters. Mitchell this morning stated that the executive meeting was simply to take up questions which have come up since the regular convention adjourned, and was not for the purposed of mapping out a course for the convention to pursue. Mitchell was asked what would be done with the Ryan resolution passed in the regular convention, which provides that no agreements shall be signed unless all the districts under control of the national miners' organization are included in their contract. "I cannot tell any more about that than you can," said Mitchell. The the complexion might be affected by the number of proxies given by the smaller unions, not financially able to send special delegates again to Indianapolis, was discounted by Mitchell.

Bomb-throwing.

New York, March 14.—A man supposed to be a striking teamster threw a bomb this morning at the front of the six story double building of Clark, Chapin & Bunnell, importers and tea jobbers, at Nos. 177-179 Duane street. The explosion shattered several large glass windows in the front of the store and caused the overturning of canned goods and a loss of about $1,200. The teamsters formerly employed by the firm have been on strike since December 8, and since that time the members of the company have been subjected to various forms of annoyances. During the last few weeks a number of non-union men, who took the places of the strikers, have been badly beaten.

Withdrew Warrant for Execution.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 14.—Governor Pennypacker this morning withdrew the warrant for the execution of George H. Hossey, the voodoo doctor, who was to have been hanged in Philadelphia on March 27. Hossey's counsel has notified the Governor that they intend to apply to the Board of Pardons for commutation of the death sentence.

Sale of Railway Stock in Canton.

Canton, China, March 14.—The stock of the Hankow-Canton railroad was offered for sale for prospective investors in this city today. The rush of applicants was so great that the streets in the neighborhood of the offices where subscriptions were received became blocked and it was necessary to call out soldiers to manage the crowds.

Mysterious Fire.

Fishers Island, N. Y., March 14.—It is believed at Fort Wright that the fire seen off here late last night, and believed by some to be a vessel afire, was on the Long Island main land. It was nearly opposite this point and too far away to be clearly distinguished.

Billiard Match.

Saratoga, N. Y., March 14.—George Slosson, of New York, who is practicing here for his championship billiard match with Willie E. Hoppe, defeated Charles Klein, of Philadelphia, last night by a score of 500 to 450. Slosson played 18.1 and Klein 18.2.

Voting in Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—The elections for the National Douma are proceeding slowly. The people generally are overawed and are afraid to vote. Many liberals who were elected have already been arrested and sent to Siberia.

Five Thousand Miners Strike.

Paris, March 14.—Following the great mine disaster at Courrieres on Saturday, 5,000 miners in the Courrieres neighborhood have declared a strike. Other miners threaten to join the strike movement.

Austrain Ambassador Attacked.

Buda-Pesth, Hungary, Mar. 14.—The Hungarian press is making an angry attack upon Dr. L. Hengelmueller de Hengervar, the Ambassador of Austria-Hungary to the United States, charging him with instigating the American press against the policy of the Hungarian coalition party.

Mother and Son Asphyxiated.

New York, March 14.—Mrs. Rose Hyslop, aged 23, and her son, Joseph, of No. 190 India street, Green Point, were found dead in their beds today, having been overcome by gas. It is believed that their deaths were due to an accident. Both owned a number of houses in the vicinity of their home.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 14.—The stock market held generally firm during the first hour with strong spots similar to those of yesterday. A large part of the selling came from Chicago.

Tortured to Death.

Five Koreans on the island of Hawaii have been accused of a murder of unusual atrocity. Their alleged victim was a fellow-countryman suspected of stealing $56. They are said to have seized him in a cane field and then held an inquisition. It is charged that he was beaten and cut, and when he fainted, his captors revived him with wine, in which they partook themselves, resuming the tortures when he was strong enough. To add to his sufferings salt is said to have been placed in his open wounds. He died when a fire was kindled under a portion of his body. Besides the five men indicted, four others are in custody in connection with the affair.

Telegraph Operators' Signs.

Telegraph operators always have personal signs which they place on all messages they send or receive. Usually they use two of their initials or take two letters from their names. For instance, James Black will probably use "JB" as his sign. In many cases, however, they choose their signs in peculiar ways.

"We once had a man working here who signed 'KE' because he had taken the Keeley cure," said a Kansas City chief operator. "He afterward went back to drinking and then used 'BZ,' deriving it from 'booze.' Another fellow signed 'PS' because he used to say he received a poor salary. A woman operator we had here used to sign 'HK,' her initials, until one day her beau jilted her and married another girl. After that she signed 'BH,' which, we understood, meant 'broken heart.' In an eastern office where I once worked there was a hoodoo sign. It was 'KQ.' The first man who used it there was killed by a train, the next one went crazy and the third died of typhoid fever. After that nobody in the office dared use the hoodoo sign. The story about its being a Jonah traveled over the country, and today you'll find very few operators signing 'KQ.'"

American Exuberance.

A prominent English statesman who visited this country a few years ago was talking with friends about the national characteristics of Americans and gave it as his opinion that the westerner is the most truly humorous of the citizens of the United States.

"Why," said the Briton in explanation, "a relative of mine who frequently visits the States for purposes of sport tells me that he was entranced by the reply made to him by the proprietor of a hotel in Nebraska when he asked if there were any quail in the vicinity.

"'Quail!' exclaimed the proprietor. 'I should say so! Why, they've got to be a regular nuisance round here. My cook complains that she can't throw a piece of toast out of the window without four or five fat quail fighting to see which shall get on it!'"—Woman's Home Companion.

The Antiquity of Football.

If it is not the oldest game in the world football is not far from it. But it has never been a game in which puny nations played. The Greek game was originally called pheninda, or feinting, later it was called episkyrus, epikoinos, and lastly harpaston, under which name it came to resemble football. The Roman game was follis and was less rough. There was a center runner in harpaston, around whom the game was fought out. One side was given the ball; the other side chose a center. The side with the ball stood some distance back from a line on which the center runner was posted, and at signal the ball was thrown past the middle man. Players could be held back from securing the ball in any way, though the Greek youths had no rush formation, never seeming to have learned the value of team work.—Outing.

Acute Sense of Hearing.

"Yes," said the prosperous lawyer in speaking to a friend, "I had a long wait before I got any practice, but I am certainly satisfied now with my profession and its emoluments.

"The early days, the waiting for clients, was hard, though. Why, do you know that I got so after awhile that when I heard a footstep on the stairs I could tell ninety-nine times out of a hundred whether or not the person was coming to my office?"

"Well, that is strange," replied his friend. "Your sense of hearing must have been very acute."

"Not so much that," replied the lawyer. "You see, I made up my mind that they were not coming to my office, and ninety-nine times out of a hundred I was right."

A Suggestive Sermon.

The Rev. Dr. Howard, chaplain to Princess Augusta, was so fond of good living that he ran into debt with many of the tradesmen in his parish. It was in their special interests that he one day preached from the text, "Have patience, and I will pay you all." He spoke at great length on the virtues of patience and then proceeded, "I now come to the second part of my discourse, which is, 'and I will pay you all,' but that I shall defer to a future occasion."—London Standard.

The Alexandrite.

Don't think that your knowledge of wonder gems is complete till you have seen an "alexandrite," green by day and red by night. And such a green—olive bronze, with a potent suggestion that red is there. Green when held in the sunlight. In a darkened room with artificial light a ruby where the emerald was a moment before—a tawny wine red of exquisite tone.

The Tearless Battle.

The Tearless battle was fought between the Spartans on one side and the Arcadians and Arjives on the other 367 B. C. Not a Spartan fell in the engagement, and so, Plutarch says, the Lacedaemonians called it the Tearless battle.

Welcome Trouble.

Miss Newitt—May's in trouble. She's had proposals from two men and can't choose between them. Miss Passay—Heavens! And does she call that trouble?

A spot is most seen on the finest cloth.—German Proverb.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

How Dreams Are Weighed.

An ingenious instrument which demonstrates the close connection that exists between dreams and brain calculation is known as the "tilt board." A long, shallow tray big enough for a man to recline upon is balanced exactly upon a steel blade. A subject is placed upon it and put to sleep, whereupon the end containing his feet generally falls. But eventually the subject begins to dream, and then the tray containing the sleeper's feet reascends, the extent to which it moves varying according to the vividness of the dream. The explanation is that the blood leaves the brain of a sleeper directly the mental activities cease, and, the lead as a result becoming lighter, that end of the balance rises. When the sleeper dreams small quantities of blood are recalled to the brain to supply the dreams, and the balance is gradually changed. In this way dreams may be weighed.

Venus Among the Incas.

The only planet which the Incas had discovered was Venus, which they called the hairy on account of the brightness of its rays. They said that, being the most brilliant of the stars, the sun would not permit it to be separated from him and obliged it to attend his rising as well as his going down, just as at the courts of kings only the most distinguished lords and the handsomest ladies were admitted to the ceremonious royal risings and retirings. It appears nearly certain that the Incas spoke of Venus under two different names, according as it preceded or followed the sun. To this day the native Peruvians name it in fanciful language the eight hour torch and the twilight lamp. As this star served to show the Indians when it was time to prepare the maize for cooking, they also gave it a name indicative of that act. A chapel in the Temple of the Sun was consecrated to this planet.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quick changes from hot to cold and back again try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffling, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are ended by Ely's Cream Balm. This honest and positive remedy contains no cocaine, mercury, nor other harmful ingredient. The worst cases are cured in a short time. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.
